SOCIAL and PERSONAL

day was the marriage of Miss Lols Gannaway Richardson, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. John W. Richardson, to John M. Miller, III., son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Miller, Jr., also of this city. The ceremony, which took place in the home of the bride's parents, 1524 Grove Avenue, at 11 cicles, was with Grove Avenue, at 11 o'clock, was witnessed by only the nearest relatives and a few intimate friends. The Right Rev. D. J. O'Connell, Bishop of Richmond, assisted by Father Kaup, officiated, and a stringed orchestra played the wedding music. An improvised elter of pulma Ascenton likes and altar of palms, Ascension lilies and Cathedral candles was arranged in the bay window of the drawing-room, and white chrysanthemums banked the mantels. Quantities of fragrant yellow blossoms in rustic baskets and wallpockets decorated the library and hall, and trailing vines and Southern smilax twined with white flowers outlined the doorways and wound the balustrade of the stairway. Just before the entry of the bridal party, Miss Jean Trigg. of Petersburg, sang "O Perfect Love and Schubert's "Serenade" and the Barcarolle from "Tales of Hoffman," were rendered by the orchestra very softly during the ceremony.

The bride descended the stairs with her father, who gave her away. She wore a handsome goingaway gown of dahila-colored brocaded velvet, trim-med in sable fur with a smart black velvet hat and a corsage bouquet of purple orchids. They were met in the drawing-room by the bridegroom and his brother, Otey Norvell Miller, of Greenville, S. C., who was best man Miss Kathleen Baxter Richardson was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant. She were a French gown of American Beauty charmense with an old blue girdle and finished with princess lace. Her hat was of black velvet, with ostrich feathers, and she carried an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses, sprayed with lilles of the valley. Mrs. Richardson, mother of the bride

Mrs Richardson, mother of the bride, wore a gown of black broadcloth, with a bodice of black chiffon, trimmed in duchess lace, and a bouquet of orchids; Mrs. Miller, mother of the groom, was gowned in black velvet finished with real lace and pearls, with a corsage bouquet of lilles of the valley, and Mrs. Otey, grandmother of the groom, were black chiffon over gray satin and beaded lace, with a bouquet of gardenias. Mr. and Mrs. Miller have gone North 997 Floyd Avenue. Some of the guests from a distance attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. A Lynch Ward, Miss Lula Miller, of Lynchburg, Otey Miller, of Greenville, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Mitchell, of Atlanta, Miss Kathleen Mount, of Mattonx; Frank Lewis, of Port Mill, S. C.; Mrs. E. T. Brady, of Roanoke; Lieutenant Joseph Mahaffey, United States Army, of Washington; Mrs. P. J. Otey and others.

The bride's table in the diningroum for the bi akfast that followed

The bride's table in the dining-room for the bi akfast that followed the ceremony was set with an im-mense basket of white chrysanthe-mums and candles shaded in white and silver. The chandeller was wound with smilax and streamers of white tills were caucht to be founded. tille were caught to the four corners of the table. The wedding cale was decorated in orange blossoms, tiny wedding bells and slippers, and was arranged on an old sliver platter. The mantels were decorated with route baskets of white flowers and lighted candles.

candles.

The wedding yesterday unites two families long prominent in the social history of the State, and, although celebrated very quietly, is one of the most interesting events of the season. On her paternal side, the bride's ancestors were among the ploneer settlers of Southwest Virginia and on her mother's side she is descended from the Martins and Alstons of South Carolina. Mr. Miller is the grandson of the late Colonel Peter J. Otey, of Lynchburg, former member of Congress, and is

Dunlopklour

The Dunlop Mills Richmond Val

If Your Saturday's Order

Rosemary Pickles

Your Sunday Dinner Will Be Enjoyed More by All the Family.
A Zest-Provoking Treat and-

AND COUNTRY AIR

THE REINACH CO., Inc.

107 E. BROAD STREET.

MILLINERY-Women's and riage of their daughter, Lucy Winston, Misses' Outer Apparel.

J.B. Mosby & Co.

CIALS TO-DAY.

Gas Ranges Reduced 10%

The Daintiest Weaves in Women's Silk Hosiery

No foot is so dainty that it could not be properly adorned in these silk stockings. They are not only rich in lustre and quality, but like all they have that fine, even weave which makes other silk hosiery look ordinary. Given proper usage, they are dependable for service > as any silk hosiery obtainable. We carry all the newest shades for fall and winter > > wear. See

The Progressive Sale Offers Big Values at Our Hosiery Counter

WOMEN'S HOSE, ONLY 19c.

Lisle and Silk Stockings, high spliced heel and toe, in all colors, worth to $1.00.

39c. LISLE HOSE, 25c.

Fall and winter weight, with high spliced heel and toe, only 25c. pair.

75c. WOMEN'S SILK HOSE, 50c. Of fine, lustrous pure thread silk, in all newest shades, reinforced heel and toe.

he served en route, and the special will return to Richmond about rominent Engagement.

he engagement has been announced Miss Elsie Wilson White, daughter the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Thite, of Abingdon, and Victor S. till be a very quiet one, will take place it the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Arthur P. Wilmer, Si7 West Grace Street, in this city, and only the im-mediate families and a few intimate riends will be present.

ighter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Milwas guest of honor at a very pretty little tea yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, Miss Kathleen Richardson being hostess of the occasion. The parlors were decorated in chrysanthemums and palms, and the tea table was set with a tall basket of pink blossoms. Miss Miller, who wore a gown of white charmense veiled in flowered chiffon with orchids, received with her hostess, who was gowned in lavender creps meteor, trimmed in pearls, and a corsage bouquet of lilies the valley. Assisting in the dining-om were Misses Mary Meek, Laura Assisting in the diningchardson, Major and Nan Miller and Miss Miller will make her format bow to Richmond society at two large receptions on November 25. In the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Miller will introduce their daughter to the married set, and the younger girls and men will be received in the evening. Miss Miller is a lovely girl, and a great Invitations Out.

Mrs. Allen Edioe Donnan has issued invitations for the wedding reception of her daughter, Edith Talmage, to Angus Warner Clarke, on the evening of Wednesday, November 26, at 9 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, 813 Flord Avenue, Only the immediate families will witness the ceremony, which is to be celebrated at $.30

Judge and Mrs. Frederick Wilmer Sims have sent out cards for the marto William Worth Smith, Jr., the cere-mony to take place on Wednesday evening, November 19, at 9:30 o'clock. at Louisa. Mr. Smith and his bride will be at home after December 10 at great deal of handsome entertain-is being done this week in honor "JUST FOR FRIDAY" SPE- of Misa Rosalie Lesslie Valentine, whose marriage to Thomas West Ellett, also of Richmond, is to take place next Tuesday. Miss Valentine entertained at luncheon yesterday at the Country Club of Virginia to introduce her guests, Misses Elizabeth Raymond, of Binghamton, N. Y., and Bertha Clark, of Philadelphia, to the other bridesmaids. Covers were laid for ten, and the table was arranged with pink roses. Miss Nancy Patton is giving a luncheon in honor of the bride-elect and her maids to-day at her home, 501

Bride-Elect Entertained.

West Franklin Street.

This evening, following the first re-

S. McNell will entertain the bridal party at her apartments in Monroe Terrace. Miss Mary Saunders is giving a luncheon at the Commonwealth Club on Saturday for the bride and her attendants, and Henry Ellett will be saturday evening. Mr. Ellett will be saturday evening. Mr. Ellett's dinner will be given at the Westmoreland Club, and the guests will later attend the hop at the Country Club.

Miss Mary Scarborough will give a luncheon at the Country Club for Miss Valentine and her bridesmaids on Mon-day, and Randolph Cardoza will be host at a buffet supper at the same place that evening, immediately after the final rehearsal at the church.

For Miss Oppenhimer.

Miss Helen Rose has sent out cards for a tea to be given at her home, 330 West Grace Street, on the afternoon of Friday, November 14, from 5 to 7 o'clock. The affair is in honor of Miss Sarah Oppenhimer, the debutante daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Oppen-

Attend Big Ball.

One of the most brilliant functions f the early season was the State ball given in Columbia, S. C., last Friday vening. Mrs. Lewis Wardlaw Parker. evening. Mrs. Lewis Wardlaw Parker, of Greenville, formerly Miss Maggie Smith, of Richmond, chaperoned a quartet of charming debutantes—her daughter, Miss Lucia Parker, and Miss Parker's friends, Miss Carter Ingrain, of Richmond; Miss Octavia Arrington and Miss Angle Layer of Greenville and Miss Annie Lewis of Greenville. Miss Parker wore a rose-colored veivet brounde chiffon with a hodice of crystal embroidery and tuile. Miss in-gram were a levely gown of white satin and chiffen; Miss Arrington was gowned in white charmeuse with chiffon draperies and real lace, and Miss Lewis wore white charmeuse finished with a real lace overdress.

Tyndall-Jenka.

The marriage of Miss Ella Apperson H. Jenks, to Francis C. I. Tyndall, was celebrated last evening at 6,0 clock in Centenary Methodist Church. The ceremony was performed by Dr. R. M. Mexey, of Suffolk, assisted by Dr. W. J. Young and Dr. Morris. Palms and plnk chrysanthemums banked the chancel and altar and Professor Fred Hardy rendered the wedding music.

The bride entered the church with their father, who gave her away. Sie wore a handsome gown of white crope meteor made with draperies of read lace and her veil of illusion fell from a Juliet cap fastened with orange biossoms. Her only ornament was a diamond brooch, the gift of the green, and she carried a presentation bouquet of Bride roses and Illes of the valley Mrs. W. R. Binns, who was dame of honor, was gowned in pale pink crope meteor made with an overdress of point lace and she carried a shower obouquet of pink roses. Will Parish, of the University et Virginia, was the groom's best man.

The bridesmalds, who included Miss Chadwicks, of Richmond; Miss Lucille Jenks, sister of the bride, and Miss Jenks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jenks, to Francis C. I. Tyndall, was

The bridesmalds, who included Miss Chadwicks, of Richmond; Miss Lucille Jouks, sister of the bride, and Miss Elizabeth Smith, of Randolph, wore similar gowns of pink charmeuse, draped in shadow lace caught up with pink rosebuds, and girdles of pink messaline. Their bouquets were of pink buds. Little Dorothy Wetzel, who was flower girl, scattered rose tetals was flower girl, scattered rose tetals. Corner Fourth and Brond Streets.

Corner Fourth and Brond Br

r maiden trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffin Taylor Garnett,

The event is to be a very interesting Jr., whose marriage took place in The event is to be a very interesting and unique occasion and many distinguished guests from Riehmond will attend it, including the Governor of Virginia and Mrs. William Hodges Mann, members of the Governor's staff, Mayor and Mrs. George Ainsile, and many others. The Governor of Maryland and nembers of his staff, as well as prominent guests from Baltimore, will also be in attendance. Lunchers

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Clarke announce the marriage of their daughter, Folsom Amelie, to Norwood Garland Haddock the ceremony having taken place on Tuesday, November 4, in Washington The Rev. J. L. Kibber, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, officiated. After a wedding trip that includes New York and other places of interest in the North, Mr. and Mrs. Haddock will be at home on November 16, at 2017 Stonewall Street, Woodland Heights.

Meetings To-Day.

There will be an important meeting of the Kirmess Association at the Jefferson Hotel, in Room 630, this morning at 11 o'clock.

The Junior Hellywood Memorial Association will meet this morning at 11 o'clock in Lee Camp Hall.
The Dorothea Payne Madison Chapter, Daughters of 1812, will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Leroy E. Brown for the pur-pose of completing arrangements for State conference

For Pine Camp.

An attractive event this evening, at 5 o'clock, will be "Illustrated Songs and Costume Recital," by the Woman's Club of Ginter Park, in the Assembly Hall. The affair is for Pine Camp and Mrs. Norman Call has charge of the program for the evening, fol-lowing which the floor will be cleared

Mrs. C. V. Meredith announces that be pleased there will be a suffrage tea and baznar suffrage headquarters, Commercial Building, on Tuesday afternoon, No-vember 11. Articles for the bazaar will be received at headquarters, Room 222, and members are requested to many functions have been planned for bring them in as far in advance of No-ner this winter. Vember 11 as possible. Members and their friends are invited.

In and Out of Town. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Glasgow, of condon, England, are guests of the latter's father, John P. Branch, at 1 West Franklin Street.

Mrs. Z. W. Tinker, of Hot Springs, s the guest of Mrs. Anne Branch Cabell for the Cabell-Shepherd wed-

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Young have returned to Richmond, and have taken an apartment at 1719-A Grove Avenue for the winter.

The Right Rev. D. J. O'Connell, Bishop of Richmond, has returned from trip abroad. Miss Emily Wade has returned from the University of Virginia, where she attended the fall germans. Miss Elena Williamson, of Richmond, is visiting friends in Danville for sav-

Mrs. Charles E. Borden has returned to Richmond, accompanied by her sister, Miss Fanny Tyler.

Miss L. C. Scott has resigned her position as matron of the Nurses' Home of the Memorial Hospital, and will leave November 10 to spend the winter with her cousin, Mrs. 1. H. Kemp, in

Waist Department, Second Floor

New Arrivals in the Thalhimer Waist Dept'mt

Dressy Chiffons in all shades tucked chiffon; prices, $15.00 and Cream Net Waists, yoke effects, with fancy lace $5.98 vests, at $5.00 and....

Shadow Lace Waists, in all shades to match your suit; novelty Persian $8.48 Silk Shadow Lace Walst, over flesh colored chiffon, $10.00 New lot of Black Waists for mourning wear, of fine crepe and Very Dressy Blouses in silk shadow laces, with

One lot broken size Chiffon Waists, values from $5.00 to $7.50, for $3.48

Cream Net Walsts, in broken sizes, $3.98 $1.98 values, for

LORD CHIEF JUSTICE WEARER OF MONOCLE

Constitutes Notable Addition to full truth, Full Wig and Ermine-Lined Scarlet Robe.

Old Dominion Line Annual Excursion.

Leaves Saturday, November 15, 4 P. M., via C. & O. Railway. Tickets include meals and berth on steamer. Good for ten days. Apply at company's office, 821 East Main Street,

Why Not Save HALF the Cost of Your Suit?

The Lovenstein Plan

Here at Lovenstein's you can have the choice of hundreds of beautiful patterns-every one new and distinctive. All our goods are "London shrunk." They do not lose their shapecomplete and varied line of goods - better quality and lower prices than anywhere else in the city.

Tailor Made

There are a great many ladies' tailors who will make your suit for $20.00. You can save almost HALF the price of your suit by this method

Teas and Coffees

ties only. Appearances are very de-ceptive. Our stocks are selected from the finest imports, and are especially for informal dancing. The public is adapted to the best trade. Try them, and you will realize the difference, and

> McCarthy & Haynes 510 E. Broad Street

SCHOOL SHOES FOR BOYS AND GIRLS $1.50 to $3.00, Every Pair Guaranteed.

The House of Fashion Bernard, Frances & Co., Broad and Fifth Streets

HAMMOND

"Flowers of Guaranteed Freshness."

Tel. Madison 630.

he Velvel King PURITY ICE REAM Munroe 1861

under the necessity of confessing the

The eyeglass is also of great use to the judge in connection with his deal-ings with the jury. For without going at Toledo, perhaps the finest in Spain. S IR RUFUS ISAACS is the first Lord Chief Justice in English history to wear a monocle, though not the first popular to the first popul the first occupant of the bench of the Supreme Court to do so, since it is also veracity of the statement of a witness. or as to the value of any particular argument by the members of the bar pleading before him at the time.

There is at the present moment no monarch that I know of, save the young reigning Prince of Schaumburg-Lappe, reigning Prince of Schaumburg-Lappe, who wears a single eyeglass. For King William of Wurtemberg, who was wont to affect it, has now with advanc-ing years supplanted it by a pince-nex, wont to affect it, has now with advanting years supplianted it by a pince-nex, while King Manuel, who also wears a single glass, no longer occupies the threne of Portugal.

Whes—Heltzel.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Winchester, Va., November 6.—Casper Wines, formerly of Rappahannock County, but now of this city, and Miss threne of Portugal. Queen Mand of Norway still con-wont to do prior to her marriage. She carries it in her eye without the alight-est distortion of her face, and, in conunction with her piquant style of omeliness, it looks very knowing and dashing. She is, so far as I am aware, the only feminine occupant of a throne to wear a monocle.

Emperor William, like Lord Kitchener, objects to them, and some twenty years ago issued a general order pro-hibiting their use by the officers of the army, creating much consternation thereby, especially when a few days later, he stopped in the streets of Berlin and placed under arrest several young officers of the Guard, whom he met with their glasses screwed in their eyes. He declared that if the officers were short-sighted they could wear spectacles, or a pince-nez, but the mon-ocle was nothing but a ridiculous afation. It was assumed at the tinfo his ukase in the matter was aimed his tramendously dandified brother-law, Prince Frederick Leopold of crussia. But, he this as it may, he nded by relenting, and to-day a large number of derman officers wear moncles, without any let or hindrance. There are some men to whom it is an absolute necessity, and who are entirely dependent thereon; so much so that Lord Kitchener's action in send-ing several young officers down from the front during the Boer War, for de-claring that they could not dispense with the use of a single glass, was considered as a bit of harshness.

Thus, I can recall the predicament of Major Norton Legge, of the Tenth Hussars (whom I used to know, and who was killed in action during the Boer War), when summoned some years previously to Windsor to receive the Distinguished Service Order for his bravery in the Soudan, he dropped his eyeglass on entering the throne room. Too nervous to look for it, he approached Queen Victoria without it, although aware that he could not see properly unless it were in its place. Trusting to luck, he knelt down before the Queen, and extended his arm in the usual way, as a rest for Her Venerable Majesty's hand, which it was his duty to kiss. But when he attempted to kiss the hand, he found himself two aces short, and was obliged to push imself along on his knees; an ordeat more trying than the piece of gal untry for which he was being dec

Grand Duke Constantine Nicholalo-vitch, the most brilliant member of the imperial house of Romanoff, and brother of the Liberator Czar, turned his monocle to most excellent account in getting rid of bores. His monocle hung from his neck by an extremely thin elastic cord, and as soon as ever his interlocutor had embarked on some long winded speech, he would quietly give the elastic an imperceptible twitch, which had the effect of sending the eyeglass bounding up to his eye, where it remained fixed, without any apparent effort or action on his part, beyond a slight inclination forward of the head to receive it in the orbit. He would then gaze fixedly through the eyeglass at the unfortunate speak-er, just as if nothing had happened.

The effect of this little manocuvre was generally to completely disconcert the new presentee, whose utterances were usually cut short, not only by the manner in which the monocle appeared to fly up to the grand duke's eye of its own accord, but also by the fact that His Imperial Highness seemed totally unmoved thereby.

Of chief magistrates of republies, the only one to include in the use of a monocle was President Faure of France; and a funny story is told in this connection. It seems that Cap-tain Baron Hourst, of the French army when he went on his exploring expedition in the African regions beyond the River Niger, took with him a num the River Niger, took with alm a num-ber of colored pictures of President Faure, whose features were adorned with his eyeglass. The native women had never seen an eyeglass before, and their enthusiasm for the "Three-eyed Sultan" of the French, as they described him, knew no bounds.

This led an unscrupulous Parisian servant of the captain to conceive the bright idea of wearing an cycglass himself, in order to show the French Sultan in the flesh. The result was that all the native women forsook their lawful lords to follow him. There was a lively demonstration on the part of the jealous chiefs. The colored por-traits of President Faure, and the Parisian deputy Sultan, had to be sup-pressed in hot haste, and the entire expedition to beat a speedy retreat to the seacoast, its object being thus frustrated through the monecle.
In Germany, and on the Continent generally, the wearing of spectacles or of a pince-nez by military officers, is not considered unsoldierly, and is quite common. But in England an officer wearing glasses would excite comment that those who are short-sighted make use of single glasses, which, though condemned by Lord Ritchener, are gen----a Diamond before him and Alfonso XIII. In review, the young monarch suddenly left his guest's side, placed himself at the head of the regiment and himself let it be-fore the chief magistrate of France, saluting him with his sword as he did so. Neither at St. Petersburg, nor yet at any of the monarchical capitals visited by the Presidents of the French ittracted a considerable amount of attention in the various European capi-

One of the things which attracted the President's attention more than

White—Baker.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Fredericksburg. Va., November 6.—
Henry W. White and Miss Virgie Baker, daughter of Joseph T. Baker, of this city, were united in marriage last night at the residence of Rev. R. A.
Williams, D. D., pastor of the Baptist Church, who performed the ceremony.
They will make their home in this city.

Wines-Heltzel.

A Diamond gift—the gift de luxe-sentimental and of genuine worth. While in Spain last month President will be spain that month President Poincare received an honor which until now has been accorded to no chief magistrate of any republic by a reigning sovereign. When visiting the Schwarzschild Store.

For this occasion, as well as at all ing sovereign. When visiting the great military college at Toledo, which is the counterpart of the West Point Academy of the United States, and or the Kingston Academy of Canada, and the corps of cadots was about to pass before him and Alfonso VIII. For this occasion, as well as at all other times, the welcome to come and look is emphasized. SCHWARZSCHILD BROS., 1 Richmond's Leading Jewelers, Second and Broad Sts.

Jonah Heltzel, of Hampshire County, W. Va., were married here last even-ing at the parsonage of the First Bap-tist Church by Rev W. H. Carter, and will make their future home in this republic, has such a compliment been paid to them by the sovereign, and the incident at Toledo has in consequence Invitations Issued.

[Special to The Times Dispatch.]
Lawren eville. Va.. November 6.—Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Peebles, of Lawrenceville, have sent out invitations to the wedding of their daughter. Miss Myra Alma, to Dr. Hugh Yelverton, of Wilson, N. C. The wedding, which will be one of the most important social events of the winter, will take place at the Lawrenceville Methodist Church on November 18.

constable of the realm, who is interred beneath, with his duchess, not in a reclining position, but seated at a table with his wife sitting opposite to him. No one cles that I have ever heard of has ever been interred in this peculiar fashien, the nearest approach thereto being the old Kings of Denmark, who are bricked-in, standing upright, in columns of the old Cathedral of Roskiolde, near Copenhagen. The cathedral is the metrocally anything else at Toledo was the mag-nificent tomb in the cathedral of the famous Duke Alvaro de Luna, Grand Constable of the realm, who is interred beneath, with his duchess, not in a re-clining position, but seated at a table with his wife sitting opposite to him. No one clse that I have ever heard of has ever been interred in this neculiar

Daniel—Marshall,
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lynchburg, Va., November 6.—William I. Daniel, whose home is near Waruna, and Miss Flora S. Marshall, daughter of R. S. Marshall, of Brookneal, were married yesterday afternoon at the home of Rev. W. S. Royall, 1200 Early Street, Mr. Royall being the officiating minister.

Marriage Announced.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Bedford City, November 6.—W R.
Saunders announces the approaching marriage of his daughter, Blanche, to Henry Latham Rucker, a young to-bacconist of Lynchburg, the rites to be celebrated at the home of the bride November 19.

enderen cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Kitchen Cabinets

THE GOOD KIND. THE MODERN KIND.

THE CONVENIENT KIND.

THE DEPENDABLE KIND.

The kind that would have sent a thrill of ecstasy through the heart of Mother Hubbard in her day of toil if she could have seen them.

Prices, $14.50 to $25 and up. SYDNOR & HUNDLEY

Seventh and Grace Streets.

Men's Shoes of Quality Our Men's Shoes are of up-to-the-minute styles and of Steadfast, $5.00--$6.00 The "Steadfast" Shoes, in all the latest cuts, smart styles, are Great Shoe Values, $5.00

Biltrite, $4 00 The "Biltrite," though a little cheaper than the Steadfast, is of A No. 1 quality-best $4.00 Shoe you can buy. The Sibley Shoe Co.

814 E. Main Street.

New Models for Winter Costumes

There will be eight pages of color designs and descriptions of fashionable models, showing the latest features of smart winter costumes for young and old, also advanced Christmas suggestions for dolls and their wardrobe, in next Sunday's The Times-Dispatch. This supplement will accompany the regular edition. Don't fail to order it now.

Phone Monroe 1, Circulation Dept.